Drew Says King Is 'Closing Door'

provincial conference he reconvened at the earliest possible date. After the federal cabinet considered the request, Mr. King replied Sept. 27 that "once satisfactory financial relationships have been agreed upon, the dominion government will propose a meeting in a general conference of mutually satisfactory arrangements relating to public investment and social welfare."

In reply Oct. 2 Premier Drew again urged Mr. King to set an early date for the conference to meet again in Ottawa and said Ontario was prepared "to co-operate to the very limit in reaching satisfactory agreements which will be in the best interests of all the people of Canada."

Premier King's Reply
In his reply Oct. 2 Mr. King said in part: "In answer to my statement that the dominion government is prepared at all times to consider specific proposals on any aspect of dominion-provincial relations, you do not express a willingness to discuss any such proposals with the ministers and officials of the departments immediately concerned but claim it is your right to present your views to the whole conference."

"As prime minister of Canada, it is necessary for me to point out that your conception of the purpose and role of the conference appears to differ substantially from that of the dominion government."

"As you have pointed out, I have consistently maintained that the conference should be master of its own proceedings and agenda. That, however, does not imply that the conference has power to make decisions which are binding on the dominion government or on any provincial government. It remains would be a denial of the autonomy of the dominion government and of the exclusive constitutional responsibility of each government to its own legislative body for its financial policies."

Drew King Answer
"It is and always has been our view that the purpose and scope of the conference were to study dominion-provincial relations, and endeavor to find lines along which the dominion government and each provincial government as a separate autonomous entity could enter into agreements mutually satisfactory to the two parties to each separate agreement."

Premier Drew in his reply repeated the circumstances under which the provinces signed wartime agreements and said Ontario had offered to vacate corporation and personal income tax fields for the term of a proposed temporary agreement in return for an annual rental payment.

The point upon which most of the provinces disagreed at the conference was the refusal of the dominion government to give any assurance that the taking powers of the provinces in fields other than income tax would be respected.

"You make much of the fact that we entered into separate negotiations with some of the provinces and for that reason are unable to call the conference together until you have completed those negotiations."

The fact that governments representing less than one-quarter of the people of Canada have found it necessary to accept terms laid before them outside of the conference is not a justification whatever for your refusal to consider the requests of other provincial governments which represent in total affairs more than three-quarters of the people of Canada."

MONTREAL, (CP)—Federal governments always have had tendencies toward centralization with the idea of saving the rights of the provinces. Premier Dupont Wednesday night told more than 1,000 guests at a banquet marking the second year as head of the Union Nationale government.

He warned that if exponents of centralization had their way, provincial rights would disappear, confederation would end and there would be no more Canada.

The premier was willing to return to Ottawa for a resumption of the dominion-provincial conference but "I am not running after invitations. It is not dignified," he said. There had been a lack of co-operation and centralization at the previous conference, he charged.

Members had not shown a spirit of collaboration and logic needed to solve the problems. "I am not running after invitations. It is not dignified," he said. There had been a lack of co-operation and centralization at the previous conference, he charged.

power and make them tenants in their own home.

The Union Nationale leader added:

A conference between the dominion and the provinces is not a game where one seeks to get the better of the other, where one political party seeks to outsmart the other, but it should be a meeting where all work for Canada."

King Plans to Discuss
Drew Letter with Cabinet
OTTAWA, (CP)—A spokesman for Prime Minister King said Monday Mr. King would discuss with his cabinet colleagues a charge by Premier Drew of Ontario that the prime minister was breaking faith with the provinces in the matter of the resumption of the dominion-provincial conference.

The spokesman quoted Mr. King as saying his first intimation of Mr. Drew's latest letter was when he read the text of it in the press. The letter itself did not reach Mr. King until 10:30 a.m. Thursday.

Picket Jailed In Mass Trial

The "chicago" to charge into the herd.

In defense, Harborek denied stampeding the cattle, and stated after he had been struck in the face by one of the riders he had gone to the river to wash the blood from his face. When he returned, he said, the trouble was all over.

Harborek said at least seven riders rode ahead of the herd and charged into the pickets swinging their ropes. Other defense witnesses, Ted Brown and William Summers, both of whom face charges, said the riders charged into the herd at no time did they charge into the herd. They stated they were on the road to perform peaceful picketing, and that it was Lybret and his riders who provoked the pickets.

Lybret told the counsel for the attorney-general's department, J. E. Hart, that on three occasions prior to the fracas Sept. 27 he had attempted to drive the cattle to railroad for shipment. On each occasion, he said, his riders were forced to return the cattle to the ranch.

Told of Premises
He said after the three attempts had failed he promised the pickets he would not deliver the cattle, but changed his mind and decided to ship them on and hanging around the ranch most of the time.

As he and his riders ordered the cattle down the steep hill, he noticed Paul Pederson standing on the road waving a number of tin cans that had been wired together. My horse slipped just about this time and that is when I smashed my foot in two places. I got back on my horse and then rode down to Pederson in an attempt to clear the road.

Lybret said he rode down on Pederson only after horse had fallen, and in an attempt to get the cattle back on the road.

Harborek's earlier announcement that he would appeal his conviction and sentence was dropped, it was learned.

Sheila Macdonald Arrives in Canada

MONTREAL, (CP)—Miss Sheila Macdonald, daughter of the late Rt. Hon. Ramsay Macdonald, former prime minister of Great Britain, and Lady Ashley Cooper, wife of the governor of the Bank of Canada, were among the 30 passengers who arrived Thursday on Canadian Pacific Steamship Beaverford.

Miss Macdonald is on her way to Ottawa and Lady Ashley Cooper is en route to Winnipeg to join her husband, Sir Patrick Ashley Cooper, who is visiting Windsor's Bay property.

Also aboard the ship were Mr. and Mrs. E. Brown, housewife of Medicine Hat, and Miss Annie Macdonald who is going to Drumheller.

"Puppet currencies" based in China during wartime have raised a serious postwar financial problem.

Sees Slim Chance Of Jap Democracy

BRANTFORD, (CP)—(Sgt.-Maj. Talbot) (Rus) of the Canadian Army Intelligence Corps, returning from Japan, has expressed the opinion that the United Nations have only a slim chance of making Japan into a democracy within one generation.

"I saw a great deal with the intelligence division that an ordinary soldier does not see," the Japanese people are treated well by the Allies, they are not ready in this generation to become democratic. One reason for this is that the policies of the Allies may be excellent but the administration is still in the hands of the Japanese and if it is bad... the Japanese are going to blame... the Allies. The Vancouver-born soldier said it would be unwise to force or permit Canadian citizens of Japanese birth to return to Japan and possibly complain about the treatment they had received from a democratic government.

"They are going back with a grievance. They can do a great deal of harm to the future peace of the world to tell, because... they have lived under a democracy they will have a great deal of influence," he said.

Wets Lead Slightly In Beer Plebiscite

BYRONIA, N.S. (CP)—County of wets led a slight lead over the drys in incomplete returns from Cape Breton's beer plebiscite. Votes counted so far showed 1,500 county residents favored sale of beer.

Under present regulations of the Nova Scotia liquor commission beer and liquor may be bought only at a commission store and consumed only in the buyer's home.

More Toys Back For Santa's Pack

CHICAGO, (AP)—Santa Claus is going to carry a bigger pack of toys for American children this Christmas—his heaviest load since 1941—say United States toy manufacturers.

Many of the toys now available during wartime such as electric trains, model construction sets, bicycles and metal weapons, will be in his big sack. But these articles will be back in very limited quantities.

"It will be first come, first served," the manufacturers said, in fair warning to Papa that if he wants to play Santa Claus he'd better do his Christmas shopping early.

Canons, guns and tanks, popular during the war, are disappearing from the market. Toy models are building their own, and the war has left toy makers with various "electronic" devices.

Here are some of the newest items:

A model train with automatic whistle, electronic action, and electronic smoke that comes from the engine's stack in realistic puffing.

An all-steel 2-in-1 "rocket-bar," which combines the features of a wagon and a shooter.

The "magic-skin" doll—a doll whose skin "feels" and wrinkles like a real baby's, and which can be bathed and powdered.

U. S. Shows Surplus For Three Months

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States government again broke into the black Wednesday market for surplus operations for the current fiscal year. The treasury statement for Oct. 14 showed that day's receipts were $12,836,828, and expenditures only $10,444,520, giving an income an edge sufficient to provide a surplus of $11,775,308 for the 31-month-old fiscal year.

"Must have been hell for you," "Yes," said the wireman.

RESCUE LEFTOVER ROASTS WITH THE HIP OF Libby's PREPARED MUSTARD

Canada holds the list of places where emigrants have picked for their new homes, closely followed by Australia, South Africa, New Zealand, United States and other Empire countries in that order.

According to official figures from shipping companies and official representatives of countries in London, 150,000 people want to go to Canada, 140,000 to Australia, 50,000 each to South Africa and New Zealand, 45,000 to other Empire countries; 40,000 to the United States.

Majority of the people want to emigrate because they believe there are more opportunities overseas and because they believe their families have a "better chance" than they would in postwar Britain.

Significantly, the fact that the overwhelming bulk of those who want to go are young people, whose average age is 25 and 35. Highest percentage is in the twenties.

Shipping Is Problem

Many of the emigrants, although there are many, veterans of the last war, without a trade or occupation, have found it difficult to fit in to today's pattern of society in Britain. Involvement in the list are 600 highly skilled building workers, many of them in reconstruction work here—who will, sail in government ships.

Key to the whole movement is shipping, and the desire of respective countries to have emigrants. Most Empire countries are willing to accept British immigrants, but they must be skilled artisans, factory operatives, farm workers—the same people the British needs most at home. Except in Australia, there is little call for unskilled workers.

Surprise development in the list of those applying for passage is the number of "upper middle class" people who have not their names down—on condition they can take their savings with them. Under War or England restrictions now this is impossible.

Claims Imports Most Valuable

MOORE JAW, (CP)—Solon Lew, national leader of the United Canadian party, told a public meeting here Wednesday night that Canadian existence depended upon import rather than export trade.

Mr. Lew, M. P. for Peace River, said the federal government had taken close to $2,000 from the Canadian people to pay for advertising that was untrue.

He said a series of newspaper advertisements which told readers that 35 cents out of every dollar earned by Canadians came from overseas were as "stupid as bringing movie stars from Hollywood to sell Canadian to buy Bonds during the war."

150,000 Britons Seek Way Of Migrating to This Country

By Frank Swanson

LONDON. As Britain's famous Queen Elizabeth slipped out into the channel from Southampton Wednesday on her maiden voyage to New York, a half million Britons were mentally substituting themselves for the host of peers and princesses, scores of millionaires, foreign ambassadors and other notables abroad the giant liner.

These not-to-be-looked-for escapees from Britain—enough to form a queue two deep from London to South Africa—were being held back to watch the Queen Elizabeth's departure from the dockside from those who want to get out of Britain—for good.

The giant queue, which grows 60,000 emigrants every day, is the greatest migration wave in the history of Britain and prospects are that it will start to move slowly next month and as time goes on, will move with greater speed.

To Explore Means Increased Trade

LONDON, (CP)—Hector McKinnon, chairman of the tariff board, said Thursday as Canadian delegate at the trade and employment preparatory committee meeting that he and other Canadian officials will present new undertakings to the committee to undertake commitments but to assist in exploring means for achieving most of common objectives in trade and employment.

Prime Minister King stated in the Canadian house of commons that no country had a greater interest than Canada in the realization of the objectives of expanded world trade and high stable levels of national employment, said Mr. McKinnon.

"It may be contended by some countries represented here that expanding trade is a source of ever-increasing employment and by employment I mean the entire field of productive effort—that of the primary producer as well as the skilled artisan; by others, that a high level of employment is seen as a prerequisite to aid and a guarantor of greater and greater trade."

"That these two work together for the common good has been and is the belief of my government. The Australian delegate, Dr. H. C. Coombs, suggested four principles for improving world trade:

1. Monitor government should seek to raise employment and income standards within their own borders; 2. allow their people to spend freely in other countries and thus help international trade; 3. open for their people new opportunities with better rewards for labor; 4. protect primary producers from damaging price fluctuations.

Dad Does Quarter Of Baby-Changing

SARATOGA, Cal. (N.Y.A.)—A good news for women who can't get their husbands to diaper the baby was revealed at the ninth annual convention of the National Institute of Diaper Service, held at Wilmington Island near here.

According to a survey by the institute, 25 percent of all the diapering done throughout the country last year was executed by men. The number is a 100 percent increase over figures compiled the previous year.

The return of soldiers who saw their new offspring for the first time and were anxious to become acquainted was one of the reasons given for the sudden popularity of diapering by men. The Red Cross also organized classes last year to teach fathers the technique of diapering.

A diaper display, scheduled to be on exhibit at the convention, was cancelled because none of the institute members could spare diapers during the current famine.

Wants Dominion Take Over Dosco

TRENTON, N.S. (CP)—Angus MacInnis, CCFP member of parliament for Vancouver East, told public meeting here Wednesday night that "since the Canadian people are going to subsidize the Dominion Steel and Coal Corporation, then that company should be taken over by the government and run for the people."

"If the Liberal administration is not prepared to socialize the steel industry, then it should at least appoint a government representative on the board of directors in order that it may satisfy itself that the business is run efficiently and that the subsidies are really necessary," Mr. MacInnis said.

"After Dosco said it could not afford to pay the 13-cents-an-hour wage increase granted stockholders in its Sydney, N.S., plant after an 84-day strike, the federal government told the company it would grant additional subsidies to meet the pay boosts."

Lost Dogs Are English Woman's Boarders and Companions

By Charles Nichols
LONDON.—Beginning Thursday, Britons are on a month-long hunt for the nation's fuel and keep its industry running.
If they fail the test, they have it from Paul Minister Erasmus, Minister of Fuel, that they will have drastic but untested measures imposed upon them.
The whole vital problem of how to spin out the country's aim coal reserves in order to see it through the winter was thrust into parliament Wednesday when the minister told an alarmed and critical commons that the reserves would stand at 11,000,000 tons, 5,000,000 short of the amount needed to keep the houses of the nation warm and industries operating.
That deficit has to be made up in the next 30 days, and already voluntary measures have been suggested by the fuel ministry to build them up.
Les Gas, Electricity
Householders have been told to cut down by 10 percent their consumption of electricity and gas—both produced in Britain from coal.
The government has been told to convert heating plants from coal to oil burning furnaces if possible. They have been told to send their heating plant workers to "economize" set up by local education authorities. It is learned how to "economize" in use of fuel, they have been warned, if they do not operate their plants efficiently their fuel supplies will be cut off entirely.
In a railway carriage in a field at Penrith, near Truro, Cornwall, Eng., Miss Eleanor Wray keeps The Lost Dogs Home. Here Miss Wray cares for homeless pets—her only companions. ## Argentina Denies High Wheat Prices

Buenos Aires, (AP)—The Argentine government denied Wednesday charges by an UNRRA official that Argentina had charged excessive prices for wheat and had delayed the issuance of grain export permits to UNRRA.

An UNRRA spokesman said Tuesday in Washington that the agency intends "to get out of Argentina" and ease purchasing operations there as soon as the Argentine government releases an $800,000 wheat allotment for shipment to Europe.

The spokesman said UNRRA was $600,000 short of wheat, particularly 40 cents a bushel over United States and Canadian prices for the 1940-41 season. He said the Argentine government had charged $1.50 a bushel for wheat, while the United States and Canada were selling at $1.10 a bushel.

Lozano Rodriguez, Argentine secretary of industry and commerce, said Wednesday that all wheat shipped from Argentina had been donated by the Argentine government except for 30,000 tons sold under contract to the Chinese government. Although the wheat was not sold to or through UNRRA, he said, the international agency later took over the Chinese contract.

The Argentine government, Lozano Rodriguez said, had a budget for that 50,000 tons as against the present United States price of $2.25 a bushel.

Provinces' Needs Claimed Ignored

Vancouver, (CP)—Senator G. McNeil said in a radio address Wednesday night that the provinces are "face-to-face" with federal control of their revenues.
The former Vancouver mayor said there was a danger to Canadian federation in parliament's ability to amend the constitution by resolution and charged that the federal government was "ignoring" the fact that revenues of the provinces were inadequate to deal with local needs or with "16 years of deferred maintenance and expansion."

Canada was the only country in the Commonwealth in which a party majority in the house could amend the constitution, he said.
"Our Canadian parliament can abolish the use of the French or English in parliament, or can wipe out the powers of the provincial legislatures."

"Spokenmen for the government may say the power to amend the constitution may never be used but history teaches that power, once secured, will be used."

Accused of Murder Found Mentally Ill

Vancouver, (CP)—Marvin Lester Mack, 25-year-old American sailor, charged with murder in the slaying of his 23-year-old sweetheart, Olive Negrich, will never stand trial, it was learned Thursday.
He has been judged mentally unfit and will be committed to an asylum. An order-in-council ordering the committal was passed at Victoria following reports from medical men.

Miss Negrich is still in hospital, her spine paralyzed by one of three bullets, which struck her late last August after the couple had quarreled. The paralytic is expected to last her lifetime, and she will never walk again.

Requests Increase Old Age Pensions

TORONTO, (CP)—Old age pensions will be the business of all Canadians if democracy is to be preserved and lasting peace gained, Gordon Gray, Progressive Conservative member of parliament for Peel, said in a radio address Wednesday.
The former opposition house leader urged increased old age pensions, criticized the work of the present department of external affairs and said Canada could not interfere in the internal government of other countries not at attempt to live as an island of "relative good times."

Say Glass Pillow Solves Allergy
CHICAGO, (AP)—The goose-necked pillow suffered a setback Wednesday when the American Medical Association's council on physical medicine ruled that glass "fills" in bed pillows were liable to cause allergic reactions. The council's report, appearing in the current issue of the A.M.A. journal, placed pillows filled with fine glass fibers in its list of screened devices because the new product is "inorganic and therefore, contains no allergenic protein."

Bracken in Favor Fiscal Agreement

BAGOT, Man, (CP)—The government's wheat price policy, its alleged failure to procure production of essential goods and its "unparalleled wastefulness in the spending of the people's money," are the three major issues before the people of Portage La Prairie constituency, John Bracken, national leader of the Progressive Conservative party, told a meeting here Wednesday.

"Don't be misled by side-lanes," he said, referring to efforts by government speakers to examine his position on dominion-provincial relations.

"Resources Minister Glen, in a belated speech last week, 'challenged' Mr. Bracken to state his position on Manitoba's announcement that it would negotiate a separate fiscal agreement with the federal government."

Mr. Bracken said his party was "certainly in favor" of an agreement between the dominion and the provinces, and that "this was the very thing I fought for as premier of Manitoba."

Farmer Is 'Gripped'
Renewing his attack on the government's wheat price policy, Mr. Bracken said "The Canadian farmer has been gripped."

"The government has sold wheat at 20 cents below the market price, and then gives to the farmer 20 cents less than the low price it receives. By what process of thinking it arrived at such a stupid policy is beyond my comprehension."

WHARREN, Man, (CP)—Terminating statements by Progressive Conservative Minister of Agriculture, Mr. WharREN, told a Liberal caucus meeting here Wednesday that the government was "not" to take an extra 40,000,000 bushels of wheat from Canada to the United States to supply it. This was over and above the 250,000,000 already contracted for.

"In an address here Tuesday Mr. Bracken pointed out a chart, which showed a spread between the price Great Britain was paying farmers for wheat and the price paid Canadian farmers. He said the contract price was $1.53 which, with transportation charges, came to $1.80 in the United Kingdom. The British farmer, he said, was being paid $2.20 a bushel for home-grown wheat."

Explains Price Spread
Saying the price paid by Britain was the "highest possible average," Mr. Gardiner charged the chart produced by Mr. Bracken had "not the remotest of a single fact."

He said that on Tuesday a cable had been sent to Great Britain and the result had been that a British farmer received $2.07 for his wheat from the 1940-41 crop.

"Every farmer knows that the farm in Western Canada is not receiving $1.53 a bushel (the price for the first year of the United Kingdom agreement). The $1.53 is paid by Britain for No. 1 northern wheat at Port William. Therefore what Mr. Bracken must have been told was that a British farmer gets Canada at Port William $1.53 a bushel for wheat."

"What Bracken actually paid for Canadian wheat at the mill in Britain is $1.53 plus the cost of transport is almost the same as getting it from Port William to the mill. If there is storage to be paid for their wheat, in any case it is all the cost to the British government only a few cents lower."

KITCHENER, (CP)—A meeting of the membership of Local 90 of the United Rubber Workers of America (U.R.W.A.) was held for Thursday night to consider ratification of strike settlement terms in the 14-day dispute with the Dominion Rubber Company plant here.

The proposed settlement was reached after two weeks' discussion in Toronto presided over by provincial mediator Louis Fink. A company official expressed confidence the union would accept the recommendations of its representatives that the settlement be ratified.

The rubber workers walked out of nine Ontario rubber plants including four in this city, last June 24, demanding a 20-cent-an-hour wage boost. Observers believe a settlement was reached by one of the locals involved will set a pattern for the Canadian rubber industry.

Terms of the settlement to be considered were not disclosed.

The newspaper said the route would open a new way to Russia and Siberia.

The submarine reportedly proceeded under ice 60 feet thick in places.

Berlingske said the experiment was part of the great naval maneuvers the Americans launched last summer in Greenland waters.

Hanging of Nazis Gratifies Czechs

PRAGUE, Czechoslovakia, (CDN)—Remembering Litzke, the Czech people welcomed the German war criminal executions as a just and symbolic revenge which "should have been carried out long ago."

Wary of war and eager for peace, they do not believe these executions will retard preparation for future wars, which will be more ferocious, more gruesome and shocking than the last.

Military men, whatever their nationality, feel the only reason the executions were held is that the future you cannot afford to lose.

Generally, they are disappointed at the execution of Franz Zsigmond, Himmler's aide and Hans Fritzsche. They are especially disappointed that Constantine von Neurath, first German plenipotentiary in Bohemia and Moravia, got off with a comparatively light prison sentence. But they have agreed to resign themselves to the verdict rather than demanding the right to try him in Czechoslovakia.

After their long, bitter, firsthand experience of being occupied and fought over, the Czechs are just interested in recovering to peacetime consumer production. They want to resume their big export trade in glassware and other native products with America—all in the interests of regaining a normal, prosperous economy.

Decides in Favor Brendan Bracken

LONDON, (CP)—Mr. Justice Farry in chancery division of high court has given decision in favor of Brendan Bracken, former information minister, in a suit for libel against Francis Lewcock, editor of a periodical named Background.

Mr. Justice Farry said "a clear case of 'frying the market' was made in a background article linking Bracken with the financial Times of which Mr. Bracken is chairman, with a rise last May in St. Helena and the shares."

C. S. Slade, appearing for Mr. Bracken, said the libel was made in a background article linking Bracken with the financial Times of which Mr. Bracken is chairman, with a rise last May in St. Helena and the shares.

Mr. Slade said Mr. Bracken had 20,000 shares in the company and the financial Times had stated that Bracken should be regarded as a shareholder.

After several days' hearing, the defendant in default, granted a perpetual injunction to restrain a repetition of the statement, and ordered an inquiry into damages.

AN URGENT LETTER TO EDMONTON CITIZENS

At an emergency meeting of your Community Chest Campaign Committee, it was decided that the reasons behind this year's combined campaign to raise operating and capital funds, were not sufficiently well known. If they were, it is hard to believe that Edmonton citizens could remain so apathetic to their own neighbors' welfare.

The facts are these: although, for the past few years, $100,000 has allowed the Chest to carry on, this year an additional $125,000 is imperatively needed to meet necessary capital expenditures of three of the Chest Agencies—$50,000 for the Y.W.C.A., $50,000 for the Salvation Army, and $25,000 for the Canadian National Institute for the Blind. Because of the depression of the thirties, followed by war, capital expenditures have long been delayed. Furthermore, our city has grown very rapidly, with the result that Chest Agencies are urgently in need of extra funds to increase their facilities to maintain existing services for a larger Edmonton.

There is no room for argument as to the need for capital funds. The problem is rather one of how the funds shall be raised. The agreement between the Chest and its agencies provides that no agency shall solicit funds for capital purposes without the approval of the Chest. If the Community Chest cannot raise capital funds, the agencies might be forced to try it on their own. Contributors might then find themselves in the position of being asked to dig down into their pockets four or five times a year.

The Chest was incorporated to serve two primary purposes: to promote the social welfare of the City by the creation of a body to exercise control of the allotment of monies raised through solicitation of the citizens; and to combine into one annual campaign the raising of monies found to be just and reasonable to meet the annual requirements of all agencies. If these purposes are sound with respect to operating needs, they are also sound in respect of capital requirements.

In every major city of Canada—in every city of United States, the Community Chest has been found to be the same, logical, business-like way for a community to provide its vital welfare work. And this year, practically all of these cities are successfully combining capital and maintenance needs into one objective. The Calgary Chest, for instance, went far over the top in a combined campaign. From the standpoint of civic pride alone, it would be unfortunate for Edmonton to fall so far short of its goal.

This is an emergency call—to all of those who have not yet given, to all of those who have given only what they gave last year, to bring their total donation to the current campaign up to a minimum double requirement. It is the least we can do for Edmonton, and for ourselves.

Fears Germans Being Driven to Communism

Soviet Russia has made open and daring bids for the support, not only of puppet governments in eastern Europe, but also for extension of influence over populations commonly described as being in the western zone. Robert W. Keyserlingk, Montreal, managing director of the British United Press, stated here Wednesday.

HE SAID THAT one of the most glaring examples of this is in the Russian controlled radio station in Berlin which is heard all over western Germany. He said this station broadcasts the most serious and most unbalanced descriptions of conditions in western democratic lands of Germany in the Allied zone, and of living, he said, coupled with the glorification of the lot of Germans in the Russian zone. "This," Mr. Keyserlingk stated, "was hardly in the

And even letters being barred. German ignorance of conditions in allied countries was made by Goebbels and perpetuated by us.

What they learned was largely reported to them over the Berlin radio, which was still following under Soviets, the Goebbels line about decadent democracies.

There has been no serious attempt to win the confidence of the Germans while the Russians have been working overtime in this direction. This is one of the most serious problems facing the Western Allies in all of Europe today, the speaker continued.

"THERE IS the definite danger that because of lack of coordination and intelligent action, the Germans are being driven from Nazism to Communism is the opinion of a number of responsible people in occupied Europe conveyed to me," Mr. Keyserlingk stated.

"Whether this danger is grave remains to be seen," he said, "but the rivalry between east and west is aggravating the situation to the point of disaster."

Pilot Flies from City To Stricken Mother's Side

A United States Army pilot reached the bedside of his stricken mother at Detroit today after a 3000 mile flight from Edmonton.

Principal was Lt. Victor H. Whittier, 25-year-old operations officer at the American Air Transport command base here and his mother, Mrs. Victor G. Whittier, 54, of suburban Highland Park, Detroit.

LT. WHITTIER WAS BREAKFASTING here Monday when he received a telegram that his mother had suffered a brain hemorrhage and was in serious condition.

Flying conditions in the area were sub-normal but the Lieutenant finally obtained permission of his commanding officer to make a flight to Great Falls, Mont., the limit of his command. Within an hour he was on the way in a D.C.3.

Accompanied by Lt. Danny Laine, of Wisconsin and a Sgt. Woodall Lt. Whittier flew through a blizzard and reached Great Falls where he received permission to take the plane through to Minneapolis.

THERE HE BOARDED A COMMERCIAL airliner for the last leg of the trip and reached his mother's hospital bedside just 19 hours after receipt of word of her illness.

A. R. MACDOUGALL

Railway Official Wins Promotion

With a railway service of 34 years, Andrew Roy MacDougall, formerly travelling passenger agent here and general agent for the passenger department at Jasper Lodge, has been promoted to be district passenger agent, Canadian National Railways, with headquarters at Ottawa, according to an announcement by A. A. Gardiner, general passenger traffic manager. The appointment is effective Nov. 1.

Mr. MacDougall, who was born in Campbellton, N.B., started his railway career as a statistical clerk in the freight traffic department of the Canadian Northern Railway in Winnipeg. Later the same year he transferred to the passenger department as ticket agent with the company at Brandon. Two years later he moved to Calgary in the same capacity.

In 1923, Mr. MacDougall was promoted to be travelling passenger agent and the next year moved to Edmonton in the same capacity. He continued at this position until 1928 when he was appointed city passenger agent. Throughout the busy years since then, Mr. MacDougall has held various positions of increasing responsibility, including his present position as district passenger agent.

Mr. MacDougall is a member of the Canadian Railway Association and the Canadian Railway Club. He is also a member of the local chapter of the Order of the Railwaymen.

Foreign Affairs Priority Urged

Resolution urging the Dominion government to give foreign affairs priority on the agenda of the House of Commons, was passed at a meeting of the Edmonton CCF Association in the 1007 hall Tuesday evening.

This with others urging further aid in education and for the abolition of the senate, together with one to the provincial government requesting further grants to education, will be presented at the provincial CCF convention in Calgary, Nov. 1.

MRS. EDITH ROGERS and Ben Hager, who represented West and East Edmonton at the CCF convention in Regina in August gave their reports of the convention.

It was decided the group will use no official part in the forthcoming civic election. John Burke, president, was chairman.

Student Lists Show Increase

By Kay Rex
Toronto, Oct. 17.—(CP)—The number of students entering Canadian schools of social work this year is almost double the 1945 figure. It was revealed as registration opened for the fall term, it was expected that enrollment will total more than 400.

Reflecting the preference for growing in Canada, many former students and women have registered for the courses at the Maritime School of Social Work, Halifax, and at the schools in the Universities of Montreal, Laval, McGill, Toronto, and Manitoba and British Columbia. In Toronto 125 persons have signed up, compared with 63 last year. Forty per cent of the new students are men, among them several former or high-ranking officers in the armed services.

Older than the average university student, the war veteran, looking for a career, will find this maturity to his advantage. He will work where persons in their middle twenties are preferred to younger students. Again the experienced veteran has in handling and in getting along with people is an added advantage.

ONCE KNOWN as "women's work," the field of social service is now urgently needed men. "Social work should become known as a profession which is open to both men and women," said Mrs. Cassidy, director of the University of Toronto School of Social Work. "At present probably not more than one-fifth of the qualified social workers in Canada are men."

In present there are not more than 1,000 qualified workers in Canada, most of them members of the Canadian Association of Social Workers. Five or six times that number could be engaged said Dr. Cassidy.

The sudden expansion of social work, students whose marriage took place for the shortage of workers at the schools have not been able to secure employment. The introduction of family allowances, development of youth housing, the community centre movement, improved penal services and the work done by the department of veterans affairs have all contributed to the shortage.

At present the federal government announced the setting aside of $100,000 to provide scholarship to assist in expanding the Canadian Schools of Social Work.

"ADEQUATELY trained social workers are one of our best means of providing Canada's investment in health and social services. Health Minister Clouston said at the time.

At present the department of veterans affairs has listed openings for a director of social services at $4,500 and two administrative assistants and two social service field consultants at $3,000.

And for the person interested in travelling the Canadian Red Cross and the U.N.R.R.A. are looking for social service personnel.

Face Powder
War Surplus
WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—(AP)—Face powder took its place along with gun powder today as war surplus. The War Assets Administration announced it has a quarter million dollars worth of cosmetics and toiletries for sale—only by the case, and only to retailers, distributors and wholesalers.

The supplies had been bought for members of the women's branches of the United States Forces.

Epson said crystals are used by some producers for making blue- and green in the movies.

Argues Farm Security Act Beyond Powers of Province

OTTAWA, (CP)—Validity of the Saskatchewan Farm Security act was challenged in the supreme court of Canada Tuesday by Hon. J. L. Ralston, counsel for the Attorney-General of Canada, as hearings began on the constitutionality of the legislation. Alberta and Quebec have representatives watching the proceedings.

Col. Ralston, former defence minister, argued a section of the act was ultra vires in that it dealt with interest, bankruptcy and insolvency, matters which came under federal jurisdiction.

The section referred provides that in any year in which a farmer's crop yield is less than 80 per cent the principal owing on all mortgages shall be reduced by the amount of interest due.

Col. Ralston said the Saskatchewan act would interfere with and hamper the operation of federal legislation passed to cover cases of bankruptcy and insolvency.

Under the Saskatchewan legislation a board would be established to rule in cases where a farmer claimed his return were less than 80 per cent.

The board would have to decide whether there was a crop failure as claimed by farmers wishing to make use of the provisions of the legislation and whether the failure was due to circumstances beyond the control of the farmer.

Col. Ralston said the act would interfere with the power of the federal government to regulate the currency and the use of the law.

He said the Saskatchewan act "has the effect of encroaching upon bankruptcy legislation and the provisions made for reversionary under the bankruptcy act. The act does not apply only to those who

Ask Bonds Housing Low-Rental Housing

VICTORIA, (CP)—The Victoria Labor Council (VLC) will petition the Dominion government, urging that the proceeds from the Savings Bonds drive act to finance a low rental housing project.

The petition, which says the housing shortage is causing increased hardship and misery in the city of Victoria, of Canadian particularly over-representation and their families.

It is also made of poor crops. It argued that the act under the provisions of the mortgage interest actually initiated against interest. The interest rate was made the variable for the amount of principal the creditor would share with the debtor to nullify interest deductions.

REBIBIA, (CP)—A constitutional struggle which opened Tuesday before the supreme court of Canada has directed the eyes of prairie businessmen and farmers on Ottawa where the immediate fate of Saskatchewan's farm security legislation affecting mortgages and insolvency will be decided.

The Dominion government asked the court to rule whether the Farm Security act is within the jurisdiction of the legislation.

The Saskatchewan government contends that in effect the act makes partners of mortgage holders and farmers—sharing losses in bad years and profits in good ones.

Based on one of the basic parts of the Saskatchewan government's social legislation, the act attempts to prevent debt accumulation and foreclosures resulting from depression and drought. During the dismal 1930s thousands of Saskatchewan farmers lost their homes when drought and depression reared their heads to poverty and thousands of others saw their debts piled up.

This year more than 1,000 farms in Saskatchewan were declared in crop failure areas.

The other major provision of the act is to prevent a farmer's "homestead" quarter-section of

She Won Award for Best Weekly Paper

Mrs. Catherine Marston, editor and publisher of the Flora, Ont. Express, who, only five years ago after the sudden death of her husband, began a whole new career in order to care for her four children. She took over the Flora Express and in this short time she has won twice in succession the John W. Kedy Memorial trophy for the best editorial page in Canada for papers of comparable size. This year she also took second prize in the Hugh Savary Shield competition for the best all-around weekly paper in Canada. Picture shows Editor Marston working on a local news story.

land, imposing moratorium on foreclosure proceedings. A preview of the mortgage agreement before a mediation board is provided for.

The Dominion was involved through mortgages and arrears made through the farm loan board, the National Housing act and the Veterans Land act.

Agriculture Minister Gardiner said the act is being tested because of the repercussions its application might have on the federal farm loan board.

The opposition further contends the act tends to prolong the act depriving veterans of a chance to obtain their own farms due to the risks which mortgage holders feel they would face under the legislation.

Attorney-General Curran of Saskatchewan—supported in the act by Alberta and Quebec—said the province will argue generally that the legislation comes within the sections of the British North America act giving provinces jurisdiction over property and civil rights and concurrent jurisdiction over agriculture.

The provincial government has indicated that if the act is thrown out by the supreme court, action will be carried to the privy council.

Flier Known Here Killed in Crash

George A. W. Gardner, of Toronto, who was in Edmonton about two weeks ago and whose wife and child are believed to be in the city, was killed late Monday when the P-51 Mustang plane in which he was flying stalled in mid-air and crashed at Winkler, Man. Also killed was A. J. Friesen, 25, of Winkler.

The men were taking part in a demonstration flight following a Thanksgiving Day air show at Winkler. Mr. Gardner, former R.C.A.F. pilot, was known to several aviation officials in Edmonton. Both men died instantly when the plane crashed nose-down after falling to pull out of a spin. It was believed in Edmonton that funeral services would be held in Toronto.

ACCUSED FUND HANGED

LONDON, (CP)—Michael Dennis Corrigan, 46, adventure described by Scotland Yard as a super-confident man, was found hanged Wednesday in the British jail cell where he awaited trial on charges of obtaining about £2,000 ($8,000) under false pretences.

He was charged with the alleged swindle victim.

Court Dismisses Mazerall Appeal

TORONTO, (CP)—The Ontario court of appeal in a judgment handed down Wednesday dismissed the appeal of Edward Wilfred Mazerall against his conviction on a charge of conspiring to communicate information to the Soviet Union.

Mazerall, 30-year-old native of Fredericton, N.B., was sentenced by Chief Justice McRoe of the Ontario supreme court to four years in penitentiary after his conviction last June 1 at Ottawa by an assize court jury.

The appeal, made by G. A. Martin of Toronto and Roydon Hughes of Ottawa on behalf of the accused, criticized a ruling of Mr. Justice McRoe in evidence a R.C.M.P. officer made by Mazerall to R.C.M.P. The appellant argued that an R.C.M.P. inspector induced him to make the statement, used later by the royal commission on espionage as a basis for its interrogation.

Chile has difficult road building under false pretences. His face is covered with lumps and mounds.

Could See to Fight: Gata Life Sentence

BRANTFORD, Ont., (CP)—Wilfrid Hoiler, 49, walked out of Kingston penitentiary with a white cane last February upon completion of a 10-year sentence and police listed him as totally blind.

Hoiler, convicted of attacking his brother-in-law, John Carey in a quarrel over Carey's sister, Albin, was blind when he was sentenced to 10 years to serve a life term for attempted murder—with his eyes open.

Psychiatrist Calls Goering Buccaneer

SAN FRANCISCO, (AP)—Hiller was not insane but was a "first-class psychoneurotic" motivated by a sense of inferiority, Dr. Douglas M. Kelley, chief United States army psychiatrist and surgeon at Nuremberg prison, who returned to his home here recently, said in a story Wednesday copyrighted by the San Francisco Chronicle.

"Hiller was a man whom nobody loved," Dr. Kelley said. "Nobody, that is, but Hitler, who literally worshipped him."

The psychiatrist said his talks with ranking Nazis in Nuremberg prison indicated Hitler's role of Germany was a sublimation over his sense of inferiority and that everything he did or thought was a compensation.

Dr. Kelley characterized Goering as a buccaneer who could have been a hero instead of a pirate. Goering, he said, had a "classic type of ex-protrusion" and was "an opportunist at whose devotion to the Hitler cause was born of disappointment and disillusionment following World War I."

HERE ARE THE TIRES THAT OUTWEAR PRE-WAR TIRES

THE GREATEST MILEAGE TIRES OF ALL TIME

B. F. Goodrich

FIRST IN RUBBER

The new B. F. Goodrich Silvertowns are different from tires of the past. They are made of a new kind of rubber developed by B. F. Goodrich. This new rubber is tougher, cooler running, more resistant to road bruises.

The new Silvertown booties are engineered differently... with more and better cords, making them 35% stronger. They are made in different tread designs... including the famous Life-Saver Tread that wipes wet pavement dry... and the Road-Level Tread that puts a wider, flatter rubber surface on the road to share the burden.

Both these tires are new and both will outwear pre-war tires. In fact on the new Silvertowns for year after year... they are the greatest mileage tires of all time... built by B. F. Goodrich, makers of over 32,000 rubber articles including foot wear and industrial rubber products.

"Try these six cereals"

to please your family"

says Barbara B. Brooks
well-known Kellogg's Home Economist

"More and more busy housewives are learning how to save time and food, and still keep meals interesting for their families. They have discovered that Kellogg's cereals are ideal, not only at breakfast, but for making tasty dishes out of leftovers. Try these six ideas, and see how cereals can save you time and food!"

Merry sparkle at breakfast—serve big bowls of Kellogg's Rice Krispies. Children love to listen to the merry sparkle-pop song. Even "difficult" children love body-building whole-milk—with Rice Krispies.

Fresh from the oven—and piping hot! All-Bran muffins add a puffy flourish to any simple lunch. Serve them with a crisp salad, or with golden honey. The easy recipe is on the Kellogg's All-Bran package.

Hungry youngsters want an after-school snack that's satisfying and easy-to-digest. Kellogg's Corn Flakes with plenty of milk is the answer. Whole wheat gives them the lift they need to carry them over.

Oven meal—all in one dish—get the most out of every scrap of food. Add a topping of crisp Kellogg's Peps to leftover meat and vegetables in a casserole. Saves meat—and your family will love it!

A satisfying snack that's easy-to-digest. That's what you want at bedtime! Time—but make sure it's plain and simple. Tonight have a big bowl of Kellogg's Bran Flakes. With Other Parts Of Wheat.

Cupboard crawl for the hiccough! O.K., but keep their snacks on the simple side. Let them help themselves to big bowls of Kellogg's Corn Flakes with love of milk. Appetizing, always fresh.

Now, more than ever an important part of the Canadian diet!

THE world looks to Canada for help in the present food crisis. We can help make sure that everyone gets his fair share by making the most out of every bit of food. Thousands of housewives rely on Kellogg's ready-to-eat cereals. Try the suggestions above and see how they can help you save food. They're made from corn, wheat, rice... some are flaked, some shredded, some popped!

Kellogg's pioneered ready-to-eat cereals, constantly improved them. For over a quarter century, Canadian housewives have known and trusted them. Now Kellogg's is by far, the greatest name in cereal!

122 U. S. Church Leaders Offer Plan for 'Economic Justice'

NEW YORK, (AP)—Leaders of Protestant, Roman Catholic and Jewish faiths in the United States, in the first "declaration on economic justice" to be issued since the war's end, called Wednesday for "an organized and democratic partnership for the general welfare rather than a competitive struggle for individual or group advantage."

The "only alternative to this is competitive economic individualism, private monopoly or excessive governmental intervention, all of which are unacceptable under the moral law," said the eight-point statement signed by 122 church leaders.

The eight points:

1. "The moral law must govern economic life."
2. "The material resources of life are entrusted to man by God for the benefit of all... The aim of economic life should be the widest possible distribution of productive and consumptive property among the great masses of the people. Co-operatives, both of producers and consumers, can effectively assist in promoting this end."
3. "The moral purpose of economic life must be maintained at this level... The aim of economic life should be the widest possible distribution of productive and consumptive property among the great masses of the people. Co-operatives, both of producers and consumers, can effectively assist in promoting this end."
4. "The common good necessitates the organization of men into free associations of their own choosing."
5. "Organized co-operation of the functional economic groups to manage themselves and with the government must be substituted for the rule of competition."
6. "It is the duty of the state to intervene in economic life whenever necessary to protect the rights of individuals and groups and to aid in the advancement of the general economic welfare."
7. "International economic life is likewise subject to the moral law."

New York Hurt By 56 Strikes

NEW YORK, (AP)—Fifty-six industrial disputes, now subject to labor-management deliberations, are slowly strangling the economy of the United States, premise city, causing loss of incalculable millions of dollars.

Docks, warehouses and railroad sidings in New York—where not more than a $100,000,000 annual business in exports and imports alone—are piled high with thousands of tons of freight unremoved because of the machine and truck strikes.

Several hundred stores of two large food chains are closed because of the trucking dispute.

The United States maritime commission says 357 American ships are bottled up in New York harbor. The city's commerce and industry association estimates 5,000 traders in foreign goods are unable to move shipments valued at approximately $200,000,000.

A spokesman for New York's department stores, now caught between two drivers' strikes, reports sales volumes sinking week by week. A milk shortage is attributed by dealers in part to the trucking strike.

The Association of American Railroads has two freight embargoes in effect here. One bars freight consigned to American ships and the other bars freight which could not be handled by the trucking firms.

These embargoes have far-reaching economic effects, since they bar shipments which would be sent here from all parts of the United States.

A spokesman said the loss of foreign goods of the shipping strikes amounted to millions of dollars.

U. S. Halts Credit To Czechoslovakia

WASHINGTON, (AP)—The United States embargoed credit to Czechoslovakia Wednesday in apparent retaliation for that country's protest against American economic policies abroad.

State department officials said the export-import bank had been asked to suspend negotiations for a $50,000,000 credit to Czechoslovakia and had called a halt to its $100,000,000 of a projected $200,000,000 sale of surplus war material to that country.

The action follows of Czechoslovakian charges of discrimination on the part of the United States in negotiating surplus property sales and—as state department officials put it—indications of misinterpretation of United States motives in extending economic assistance to other countries.

But it was learned that one factor involved in halting sale of surplus goods to Czechoslovakia was an arrangement by which it was planned to sell part of the goods to Romania at a profit.

Alberta Movement Of Grain Improves

VANCOUVER, (CP)—Dane Kane, western representative of the Canadian wheat board reported Wednesday considerable improvement in grain car movements from Alberta to the coast with more than 100 cars a day now being loaded from that port. It appeared that the board would be able to meet all its port of Vancouver commitments for grain.

U. S. Bases Key To Island's Future

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld. (CP)—Prominent men in Newfoundland believe that one of the main stimulating blocks in the way of federation with Canada is the fact that the United States has 100-year leases on three bases on the island.

They say that Canadians would frown on the idea of American troops occupying any Canadian territory during peacetime. They argue, too, that if the United States agreed to give up the bases Canada might not be prepared to pay what it cost the Americans to build them.

The Americans spent approximately $50,000,000 on the construction of an army base on the outskirts of St. John's. Possibly as much again was spent in the construction of Harmon Airfield near Stephenville and of the navy base at Argentia.

To keep bases American government officials have said recently that the United States has no intention of giving up the bases. Rumors are heard from time to time in St. John's that the United Kingdom and the United States government have informed Canadian leaders who have no objection to Newfoundland entering confederation. The United Kingdom is offering no official confirmation or denial.

The bases deal is one of the foremost things in the minds of the people as they ponder over the future of their country. Newfoundlanders are becoming critical of the United Kingdom for granting loans instead of support-line.

Regrets No Bargaining Others argue that the bases should have been given up.

Unlicensed Seamen Get Raise of $15

HALIFAX, (CP)—All unlicensed seamen on Canadian ocean-going ships—except those who have obtained the $15 monthly wage increase as a result of a new agreement between the Shipping Federation of Canada, representing 24 Canadian shipping companies, and the Canadian Seamen's Union, it was announced here Wednesday by T. G. McManus, national secretary of the C.S.U. The new agreement became effective Tuesday.

The wage agreement calls for basic pay of $150 a month, including $45.00 formerly paid as wages and the $15 wage increase. There were corresponding increases for other classes of seamen on deep-sea vessels.

Vancouver, (CP)—The threat of strike among seamen in the west coast Canadian shipping industry is being defused by a decision of the National Association of Marine Engineers' Daily rejected the offer by ship owners of an 11 percent pay increase and demanded recognition for a seamen's union and the payment of overtime.

New Zealand Plans Select Settlers

AUCKLAND, N.Z. (CP)—Instead of entering on an immediate large-scale immigration as was planned, New Zealand's plan, the result of a year's study for a selective scheme under which immigrants will be chosen to fill specific shortages in occupations in this country.

The committee, drawn from the ranks of the house of representatives, was that because of the housing shortage large-scale immigration should not now be undertaken immediately. It recommended, however, that an increase in New Zealand's population, still under 1,750,000, is essential.

The committee found the most serious need was for operatives for secondary industries—textiles, mines and sawmills and of women for turning and domestic work. It recommended that workers to fill these vacancies should be obtained as far as possible in Britain.

The committee also recommended immediate survey of European countries, something on the lines of that of Canada is to make. Its suggestion was that as immigrants skilled in the occupations most needed might not all be available from Britain, an investigation should be made of the available from Britain, and the availability of workers from Scandinavian countries, Holland and perhaps Poland. These nations, the report said, had in the past proved to make good citizens of New Zealand.

6,000 Dock Hands Strike in Sydney

SYDNEY, Australia, (CP)—Six thousand dock-workers went on strike here Wednesday in protest against disciplinary authority of the stevedoring industry commission. The strike has held up 50 ships from overseas liners to coastal vessels and carrying cargo including food to troops, and wool shipments.
